PIONEERS IN MICHIGAN TERRITORY

This is the eighth in a series of biographies of early Michigan settlers written by GSWC members who have received a Michigan Sesquicentennial Pioneer Certificate. The documentation for the stated facts is filed under the name of the pioneer in the Library of Michigan, Lansing, Michigan.

THOMAS WELLER (1804-1883) AND WIFE BETSY McCOY PIONEERS OF CALHOUN COUNTY, MICHIGAN

The son of John and Betsey Weller, Thomas was born 30 November 1804 in England. Sometime between 1820 and 1827 Thomas emigrated to the United States, ship currently unknown. On 24 January 1827, in Framingham, Middlesex County, Massachusetts, Thomas married Betsey McCoy, a native of Massachusetts born in 1806. Their daughter, Ann Elizabeth, was born in Framingham on 26 October 1829. In 1830 the family still resided in Framingham; however, before 1832 they had moved to New Hampshire where their second daughter, Mary Jane, was born on 7 February 1832.

On 19 October 1835 Thomas Weller, of Rockingham County, New Hampshire, purchased 80 acres in Section 12, Milton Township (later Emmet), Calhoun County, Michigan, from the U.S. Government Land Office located in Bronson, Michigan. That same year Thomas brought his family from New Hampshire to Michigan to settle.

About 1847 Thomas Weller became a Justice of the Peace for Emmet Township for a four year term. In the spring of 1848 the Weller's left their farm and moved into the nearby village of Marshall. On 6 November 1848 their daughter, Ann Elizabeth Weller, age 19, married William Burr Buckingham, age 27, of Marshall. He was born in 1821 in New Milford, Connecticut, to Thomas Gilbert and Annie Stone Buckingham. Ann and William had several children, among them Edna, William, John, Thomas, May and Alice.

Mary Jane, the second daughter of Thomas and Betsey Weller, married at age 24 on 10 July 1856, Albert W. Miller, age 23, of Jackson. He was born 21 August 1832 in Clarendon, Orleans County, New York. His parents, Seth and Caroline King Miller, both born in New York, lived on their farm in Leoni Township, Jackson County, Michigan. Both Thomas Weller and Albert Miller worked for the Michigan Central railroad in Marshall. Mary Jane and Albert took up residence with the bride's parents in Marshall. Their first daughter, Mary Ella, was born in Marshall in 1858. The young family remained in Marshall with the Wellers for a while, but by 1860 they had returned to Jackson where they had four more children, Adeline, Ernest and two more who died young.

On 17 December 1878 Betsey Weller died a the age of 72 years. In 1880 Thomas Weller was still working and living in Marshall with his granddaughter, Mary Ella Miller, keeping house for him. In 1882, because of his age, 78 years, Thomas was retired by the Michigan Central Railroad for whom he had worked as a baggageman at the Marshall depot. On 19 December 1883, in the home of his daughter, Mrs. W.B. Buckingham, Thomas Weller died. He was buried next to his wife, Betsey, in the Oakridge Cemetery, just south of the city of Marshall.

Their grandson, Ernest A. Miller, married Anna Maria Kirn on 28 July 1886 in Ann Arbor. She was a daughter of John Georg Michael and Caroline Mittlemaire Kirn of Ann Arbor. Ernest and Anna later moved back to Jackson where they had five children, but only the eldest two girls survived. They were Mabel, who married Thomas H. Harshman and my grandmother, Edna, who married David E. Hoffman.

Many of the known descendants of Mary Jane Weller Miller reside in Michigan, primarily in Jackson County, but some are also in California.

THOMAS KINGSTON, WAYNE COUNTY, MICHIGAN, PIONEER

Thomas Kingston was born 21 June 1809, probably at Crohane, Clonakilty, County Cork, Ireland, to George and Dorothy (Dora) Hayes Kingston. According to his naturalization papers he sailed from the port of Cork and arrived in the territory of Michigan in June 1836 and settled in Wayne County. Thomas built a house in Detroit at 8th and Abbott when the area was still the Woodbridge Farm, following the occupation of drayman for fifty years. On 23 October 1843 he married Sarah Ann Ward, daughter of George Ebenezer Ward and Ellen Maguire. Her birthplace was Walpole Island, Canada, and her life was tragically ended at age 38 when she was accidentally shot by her son. Thomas remained a widower and died in Detroit on 3 March 1899. Their children were Henry, John, George, Dora, Samuel, Thomas, Joseph, Sarah Anne, Sophronia, and Ward.

George Ebenezer Kingston, son of Thomas, married Barbara Steffes, daughter of Peter Steffes and Anna Maria Theisen, on 20 July 1869. They remained in the original Kingston house until George's death which occurred 27 February 1934. Their children were Barbara, Thomas, Mary, Samuel, George, Sarah Ann, Joseph and John (twins).

Samuel Kingston, my grandfather, began as a bank messenger at the age of 14 and worked his way to the position of vice-president of Manufacturers Bank. He was a lifelong resident of Detroit and died in July 1958. His wife, Grace Irene Fleming, died the day of his funeral.

Thomas' descendants live in Texas, Ohio, Illinois, California and Michigan. Correspondence is invited on this family.

JOHN GREEN AND WIFE SARAH WILLIS, MICHIGAN PIONEERS

John Green was born in Elizabethtown, New Jersey, on 3 May 1792. In his War of 1812 pension application he stated that, while working in New York City, he enlisted "when the British stormed Washington" and served on the Frigate "President" under Comm. Rogers and on Governor's Island. The latter service was verified and he received a pension. He was married on 2 February 1815 to Sarah Willis who was born either 2 February or 2 May 1793 in Elizabethtown. They moved to Augusta Township, Oneida County, New York, by 1819 and to Washtenaw County, Michigan, by 1832, settling in Pittsfield Township, Ann Arbor, and Lyndon Township, as well as living for a time in Iosco Township, Livingston County. Sarah died probably 25 June 1860 and was buried in Mt. Hope Cemetery, Waterloo. John remarried 25 October 1862 to Mary Jane Cahoon. He died in Unadilla, Livingston County, Michigan, 20 July 1880. His children, all from the first marriage, were Permelia Collins, Mary Angeline Skidmore, Sarah Melvina Barton, John Willis, Samuel Starr, William Currie, Phebe Elizabeth Babcock and Robert H.

John's third son, William Currie Green, was the only son to remain in Michigan. Two joined the gold rush to California and later returned there to live, with Robert following later. William was born 30 March 1828 in Oneida County, New York, and was married on 1 February 1853 in Washtenaw County, Michigan, to Mary Jane Sellers. William died 3 May 1904 at the home of his daughter in Detroit. William was the father of four children, two of whom died in infancy. Son Charles died in Montana without issue. Daughter Sarah Adelle married Dr. Samuel Straith and lived most of her life in Detroit. Sarah had three sons, Claire, Clyde, and Floyd. Dr. Floyd E. Straith, my father, is still living and will be 92 next June.

John Green's descendants live in Arizona, California, Alaska, Washington, Nebraska and Michigan. Correspondence is invited on this family.

SOME RECORDS OF MARRIAGES BY METHODIST PREACHERS OF MILAN, MICHIGAN, 1865-1881

Abstracted by Lillian Eggert Brown, Milan, Michigan

These records have been abstracted from several books now held by the Marble Memorial Methodist Episcopal Church of Milan and are the earliest known Methodist records in the Milan area.

From Ronald Brunger's Early Methodism in the Milan Area, we learn that Methodist classes most certainly were organized by 1838 in the Milan area. In early days the classes or societies met mostly in homes, being attended by various circuit-riding preachers. At one time Milan area Methodists were part of the Augusta (Stoney Creek)-Mooreville circuit and later part of the Oakville (later Oakville-Milan) circuit. Beginning in 1866 the Methodists used the Union Church, which was open to all faiths, every two weeks. The present building on Park Street was dedicated on 18 April 1889.

As Milan village itself straddles two counties, some of these marriages may be recorded in Monroe County. An abstract of marriages through 1988, from all of the record books held by the Marble Memorial Methodist Episcopal Church, may be found at the church and also at the Methodist Archives in the Adrian College Library, Adrian, Michigan.

NATURALIZATIONS IN CIRCUIT COURT, WASHTENAW COUNTY, MICHIGAN, 1838-1839

Abstracted by Nancy H. Krohn

The entries of naturalization in Circuit Court Journal 1838-1839 are found in the Fifth Circuit Court Journal kept in the basement archives at the Washtenaw County Building. A word of explanation is needed here as this volume is not indexed in the master index of naturalizations kept by the county clerk. No naturalization information appears in the first two journals (1827-1830, 1830-1833). The third and fourth circuit court journals are titled in the naturalization master index as Volume I and Volume 2 and have been abstracted in FHC (Volumes 9 and 10). The label, Volume 3, is used here arbitrarily.

The naturalization entries from this journal are interspersed among other acts of the court. The presiding judge was Hon. William A. Fletcher, the associate judge was the Hon. William R. Thompson. L.C. Goodale was the clerk of the court.

No printed form was used and the information in each entry varies. Many times a statement of renounced allegiance to a foreign potentate is not followed by the name of the head of state or the country. Wuerttemberg is spelled many different ways, and some of the other localities have unusual spellings.

The following notes may apply to this abstract:

The letter "D" indicates a Declaration of Intention; Final Order (admission to citizenship) is here listed as "F.O." These notations are the editor's.
Age is at the time of the record.
Renounced allegiance to a foreign prince, potentate, state or sovereignty is not noted if it is same as place of birth.
Locality following the date of event is the township of intended residence.
A mark in place of a signature is indicated by "mark" following the name.

3.4 JOHN McGUINNESS, F.O. D. more than 2 years ago. In U.S. more than 5 years. 4 September 1838.

3.23 JOHN A. SMITH, F.O. D. more than 2 years ago. In U.S. more than 5 years. 6 September 1838.
